ARTICLE I — Preamble

The Anime & Manga Club, NISER (hereafter, the "Club") is a student-led cultural and recreational organization dedicated primarily to anime and manga, while also celebrating animation, comics, and visual storytelling worldwide.

The Club aims to foster a welcoming community through screenings, discussions, competitions, creative activities, and social events, encouraging both casual enjoyment and deeper appreciation of these mediums. It shall function in accordance with all applicable NISER rules, regulations, and policies.

ARTICLE II — Name and Establishment

2.1 Name and Establishment

The organization shall be known as the Anime & Manga Club, NISER, established at the National Institute of Science Education and Research (NISER).

2.2 Founders

The founders of the Club are:

- Kanishk Kaushik — Batch 2023, School of Mathematical Sciences.
- Manas Singh — Batch 2023, School of Mathematical Sciences.

2.3 Nature

The Club shall be student-led, non-profit, non-political, open to students interested in its activities, and subject to NISER regulations.

ARTICLE III — Objectives

The Club shall aim to:

1. Promote anime and manga, with Japanese works as its primary focus.
2. Introduce members to animation and comics from different countries and cultures.
3. Encourage discussion and appreciation of storytelling, art, animation, characters, themes, and culture.
4. Organize screenings of anime, animated films, and other suitable works.
5. Conduct quizzes, competitions, discussions, workshops, games, and recreational activities.
6. Encourage creative expression through drawing, fan art, cosplay, writing, video editing, animation, and related pursuits.
7. Help members discover new works and genres.
8. Foster a friendly, inclusive environment for experienced fans and newcomers.
9. Collaborate with other NISER clubs and organizations on cultural and creative activities.

10. Encourage participation in relevant inter-college and external events, where appropriate and permitted.

ARTICLE IV — Membership

4.1 Eligibility

Membership shall be open to eligible NISER students interested in anime, manga, animation, comics, or related activities. Prior familiarity with these mediums shall not be required.

4.2 Rights

Members may participate in Club activities, competitions, creative projects, and volunteering; suggest events and initiatives; contribute to Club projects; and express opinions on the Club's functioning.

4.3 Responsibilities

Members shall maintain respectful conduct, follow Club rules and NISER regulations, respect others and their opinions, respect copyright and intellectual-property rights, and cooperate with the Core Team in organizing activities.

4.4 Suspension or Termination

Membership may be suspended or terminated for serious misconduct, repeated rule violations, or conduct significantly harming the Club's functioning or reputation, subject to applicable NISER regulations.

ARTICLE V — Core Team

5.1 Composition

The Club shall be administered by a Core Team comprising:

1. President
2. Vice-President
3. Creative Head
4. Event Coordinator
5. Media Head

Temporary volunteer teams or sub-groups may be formed for specific events and projects.

5.2 Collective Responsibilities

The Core Team shall collectively plan and execute activities, manage resources, maintain records and continuity between academic years, represent the Club, coordinate with NISER authorities and faculty, and ensure compliance with Institute regulations while preserving the Club's direction and identity.

Major decisions shall be made collectively rather than resting entirely with one office-bearer.

ARTICLE VI — Roles and Responsibilities

6.1 President

The President shall provide overall leadership; coordinate the Core Team; chair its meetings; represent the Club in official matters; liaise with faculty, NISER authorities, and other organizations; oversee annual planning; implement Core Team decisions; and ensure continuity during transitions. The President shall not exercise unilateral authority over matters assigned to the Core Team collectively.

6.2 Vice-President

The Vice-President shall assist the President and Core Team, act for the President when unavailable, coordinate teams and volunteers, support planning and execution, monitor ongoing projects where necessary, and undertake responsibilities collectively assigned by the Core Team.

6.3 Creative Head

The Creative Head shall plan creative activities, coordinate fan-art, drawing, and cosplay initiatives, develop event concepts, encourage artistic participation, collaborate with the Media Head on visual content, and explore new creative formats.

6.4 Event Coordinator

The Event Coordinator shall prepare event plans and schedules, coordinate venues and equipment, manage volunteers, arrange collaborations with other clubs, obtain necessary permissions, oversee event-day logistics, and review events for future improvements.

6.5 Media Head

The Media Head shall manage official social-media platforms, publicize events, prepare or coordinate posters and announcements, coordinate photography and videography, maintain a suitable media archive, collaborate with the Creative Head on promotional material, and ensure accurate and appropriate official communications.

ARTICLE VII — Selection of the Core Team

7.1 Term

The Core Team shall normally serve for one academic year.

7.2 Selection Authority

The existing Core Team shall collectively select the succeeding Core Team. The General Body shall not directly elect the Core Team. This system aims to preserve continuity and institutional knowledge while allowing the existing Core Team to identify committed and suitable successors.

7.3 Selection Process

The outgoing Core Team shall collectively consider:

1. Members' active participation and contributions to events, activities, and projects.
2. Reliability, teamwork, initiative, and responsibility.
3. Suitability for individual positions.
4. The composition and overall suitability of the incoming Core Team.

Where reasonably possible, the outgoing Core Team should consult active members and volunteers regarding candidates; however, final selection authority shall remain with the Core Team.

7.4 No Automatic Succession

No member shall automatically succeed to a position based solely on seniority, batch, previous responsibility, or membership duration. Selection shall primarily reflect contribution, suitability, and ability to continue the Club's activities.

7.5 Handover

The outgoing Core Team shall provide the incoming team with a proper handover of applicable Club records, financial records, equipment and assets, social-media accounts, event materials, ongoing projects, contacts, administrative information, and other resources necessary for continued functioning.

ARTICLE VIII — Decision-Making

8.1 Core Team Decisions

The Core Team shall seek consensus. If consensus cannot be reached, a vote may be held, with each member entitled to one vote.

8.2 President's Role

The President shall coordinate decision-making without an additional vote by virtue of office. In the event of a tie, the President may cast the deciding vote.

8.3 Major Decisions

Decisions involving substantial financial commitments, significant structural changes, or matters requiring Institute approval shall comply with applicable NISER regulations.

ARTICLE IX — Club Activities

The Club may organize the following activities, without limitation:

9.1 Screenings

Anime episodes and films, animated films, selected international animation, and other appropriate visual media.

9.2 Discussions

Anime and manga discussions, character and story analysis, genre and cultural discussions, recommendations, and watchlists.

9.3 Competitions

Anime and manga/comic quizzes, drawing and fan-art competitions, AMV and video-editing competitions, cosplay competitions, and other creative competitions.

9.4 Creative Activities

Drawing sessions, fan-art projects, cosplay, writing, animation and editing, manga and comic creation, and other creative projects.

9.5 Social Activities

Themed gatherings, games, watch parties, Club socials, and collaborative events with other student organizations.

Japanese anime and manga shall remain the Club's core focus, while animation and comics from other countries may be featured periodically.

ARTICLE X — Screenings and Content

1. Screenings shall comply with applicable copyright and licensing requirements and NISER rules and permissions.
2. Content selected for official activities shall be appropriate for the intended audience and venue.
3. The Club shall not knowingly distribute pirated content through official platforms.
4. Content warnings may be provided where reasonably necessary.

ARTICLE XI — Finance and Resources

1. Club finances shall be managed in accordance with NISER regulations, and funds shall be used solely for legitimate Club activities and purposes.
2. All expenditure shall be appropriately recorded, and reasonable records of Club assets and finances shall be maintained.

3. No member shall use Club funds or property for personal purposes.
4. Sponsorships, donations, and external funding may be accepted only in accordance with NISER policies.
5. Financial records and material resources shall be included in the end-of-year handover to the incoming Core Team.

ARTICLE XII — Code of Conduct

The Club shall maintain a welcoming and respectful environment. Members shall not engage in:

- Harassment, bullying, or discrimination;
- Threatening or abusive behaviour;
- Deliberate disruption of Club activities;
- Misuse of Club resources; or
- Conduct violating NISER regulations.

During cosplay, photography, and other activities involving personal participation, members shall respect others' boundaries and consent.

Serious misconduct may result in suspension or removal from Club activities, subject to applicable NISER procedures.

ARTICLE XIII — Removal from the Core Team

A Core Team member may be removed during their term in exceptional circumstances, including serious misconduct, repeated failure to perform responsibilities, misuse of Club funds or resources, serious violations of Club or NISER rules, or conduct significantly detrimental to the Club's functioning.

Removal shall require a decision supported by a two-thirds majority of the remaining Core Team members, subject to NISER regulations.

If a position becomes vacant, the remaining Core Team may appoint an eligible member to serve the remainder of the term.

ARTICLE XIV — Amendments

1. Proposed amendments shall be discussed by the Core Team.
2. Amendments shall require approval by at least a two-thirds majority of the Core Team.
3. Amendments shall be subject to approval by the appropriate NISER authority wherever required.
4. No provision of this Constitution shall override NISER regulations.

ARTICLE XV — Dissolution

The Club may be dissolved only in accordance with NISER regulations and with approval from the competent Institute authority. Upon dissolution, all remaining funds, equipment, and other assets shall be dealt with according to applicable NISER rules.

ARTICLE XVI — Supremacy of NISER Regulations

In any conflict between this Constitution and NISER's rules, regulations, policies, or directions, the applicable NISER regulations shall prevail.

ARTICLE XVII — Adoption

This Constitution is adopted as the governing document of the Anime & Manga Club, NISER, subject to applicable Institute regulations and approval requirements.
